

CAST IRON COOKING SEMINAR

- WHEN: SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 2004
- WHERE: WELLS LAKE, SOUTHWEST PAVILLION,
OLD FORT CHAFFEE
- TIME: STARTING AT 10:00 AM, FINISHING BY
2:00 PM
- ITEMS TO BRING: LAWN CHAIRS AND SUN PROTECTION
- PROGRAM: Mr. John G. Ragsdale from El Dorado Arkansas will present the program. During the demonstration Mr. Ragsdale will prepare several recipes simultaneously while he gives his presentation.
- Mr. Ragsdale is an authority on cast iron cookware, on the preparation and the use of the cookware, and in cooking outdoors with the campfire style Dutch Ovens. Mr. Ragsdale has published several booklets on these subjects. These include, "Dutch Oven Chronicles", "Dutch Oven Cooking", and others. Copies of his "Dutch Oven Cooking" will be available at the seminar.
- DIRECTIONS: From the intersection of Arkansas State Highway 255 (Zero St. - Ft. Smith, Church St. - Barling) and Arkansas State Highway 253 in Barling, turn south on Chad Colley Boulevard for approximately 0.1 mile to stop sign. Turn right (west) on Fort Smith Boulevard and go approximately 0.1 mile to stop sign, continue west on Fort Smith Boulevard to Wells Lake Road. Continue on Wells Lake Road past a water tower approximately 1.5 miles to Wells Lake. The program will be held on the south side of the lake at the west pavilion. Signs and yellow flagging will be placed along the roadway for your assistance. The Boy Scouts will be in attendance to assist you in parking.